Lucia Day can be traced back to the 4th century. A Christian feast day, it commemorates the martyr Lucia of Syracuse, who, as legend has it, brought food to Christians hiding in Roman catacombs, lighting her way with a candlelit wreath on her head. Lucia made her first recorded appearance in a rural Swedish home in 1764, but the custom really established itself in the 1900s. Modern day Lucia traditions include the singing of songs and the sharing of fika treats such as pepparkakor, saffron buns, coffee or glögg.

HEMSLÖJD ORIGINAL DALA HORSE SIGNS

Since Hemslöjd's founding in 1984, we have produced personalized Dala Horse signs for homes around the world.

Handmade in our workshop in Lindsborg, each wooden sign is decorated and lettered on both sides by our folk artists. All are weather-hardy and made to be displayed outdoors.

When ordering, please specify the inscriptions you would like lettered on your Dala Horse sign. Most popular: Family name, "Välkommen" or "Kom igen" ("welcome" or "come again" in Swedish). We also can paint your house number or "welcome" in many other languages.

Display chains, screw eyes, easy display instructions and a certificate of authenticity are included with each horse (except 6" thin sign). Since they are handpainted, designs may slightly vary.

DESK DALA

Your own Dala Horse to sit on a desk or shelf! Personalize one or both sides with up to 15 characters. About 8" tall to top of ear, base is about 5 3/4" wide. Specify: Red, Blue, Purple, Baby Blue, or Baby Pink. #1006 $72.00

DISPLAY BRACKET

Made by our local blacksmith, this optional iron bracket is the perfect way to display your Dala Horse sign from a wall or post. 17" wide. Black baked-on powder-coat finish. Works for all signs except 24" and 6" Dala Horse. #1095 $36.00
